DEATH OF MAJOR WILLIAM ALLEN .- A telegram from Waverly station was received here yesterday announcing the death at Caremont of Major William Allen. Major Allen left the city a few days ago apparently in good health, and his death must therefore have been quite sudden. Before the war the deceased was the wealthiest man in Virginia and one of the wealthiest in the South. He owned Claremont, King's Mills, and Curl's Neck plantations, and Jamestown island, besides other valuable real estatesome 30,000 or 40,000 acres in all. He had seven or eight hundred slaves, and his lands were richly stocked. On Claremont was a railroad several miles long, and his residence there was one of the most palatial in the land. His vast fortune was left him by his uncle, Mr. Allen, on condition of his changing his name from Orgain to Allen which was done by legislative authority Mojor Allen's plantations were frequently occupied by the enemy during the war, and were robbed of everything portable, and the houses were all more or less injured. His slaves were, of course, freed with all the others, and his vast inheritance, except Curl's Neck and Claremon's which descend to his eldest son, was swept from him. Major Allen served in the Confederate States army as major of heavy artil lery. He was in his forty-eighth year, was generous and hospitable, and will be lamented by many friends.

OFF FOR THE MECKLENBURG CENTENNIAL .-Yesterday morning at 4:30 a battation, consisting of members from Companies B, C, D, and other companies of the First Virginia regiment, with the regimental band, left on the Danville cars for Charlotte, N. C. The battalion was under the command of Captain Joseph V. Bidgood, of Company C. There were between one hundred and fitty and two hundred men in line.

The members of the regiment drew their knapsacks, canteens, blankets, and tents, and will use them on this occasion. The men also supplied themselves with frying-pans, coffeequier; L. P. Daingerfield, Christ church, pots, and tin cups, and will live in regular camp-fashion.

The Howitzers, Captain Carter, numbering forty-five, rank and file, lett by the same route at 10 o'clock. Their guns had preceded them. About half past 1 o'clock a special train, with a car fitted up for cooking and eating. and others for sleeping, and having on board General Bradley T. Johnson and a number of members of the Council and delegates, left the city. The regular mail train also carried a considerable number of our citi-

> STEALING FLOWERS IN HOLLYWOOD CEME-TERY .- Many of the section-owners in Hollywood cemetery have gone to considerable expense and labor in beautifying and adorning their lots, believing that the very sacred ness of the place would be a barrier against the depredations of thieves. But it appears from reports that have reached us that there are some persons who are willing to stead from the graves of the dead. Many flowers have been stolen in the last few days-not only cut from the plants, but the plants have been pulled up from the ground and carried off. The section of Mrs. Branch, on the avenue leading to the pump-house, and the section of Mr. John E. Hankins, on the avenue leading to the soldiers' monument, and very near the main-entrance gate, have been robbed of many plants and flowers. Others bave suffered to a greater or less extent. It would be well if the managers of Hollywood would place a detective on duty for several weeks, and if possible catch the depredators. POLICE COURT, YESTERDAY - Police Justice Joseph J. White presiding .- Sarah Archer, charged with stealing a silver watch and chain worth $60, and $18 in money, from
